Civics for Adults Workshops: Enhancing Civic Knowledge / Inspiring Political Engagement

The goal of all workshops is to provide information typically hidden behind the headline-grabbing, background noise of our lives. Our democracy is strengthened when citizens have accurate civic knowledge.

"Donna brought a balanced, informed set of discussion points and fact-checking sources on voting, taxes, citizenship, and other topics that sometime turn politics from polite conversation to heated argument. Sarah Jesudason, Tualatin PL

Misinformation, Fake News and Political Propaganda

We are overwhelmed with messages from politicians, news sources and other media. Learn to distinguish truth from fiction using critical thinking strategies. The workshop uses real world examples of political ads, news headlines, logical fallacies, graphs / charts, the effect of word choice in messaging, statistical data and other types of information in a "what do you see here? / what is missing?" type of format.

The last part is about finding accurate information. The goal is to help people become their own "factchecker".

"It's good to question assertions of any kind... I liked Donna's examples of real ads and how we need to be mentally vigilant."

"...well-rounded, wide array of examples. Thank you so much! This was fun and informative!"

"Loved it!"

Citizen Activism 101—Making Change Happen

Want to improve life for yourself and your neighbors or have a concern about local, state or federal laws? Learn about strategies for change, and more: Examples of successful advocacy; Brief historical perspective; Choosing your battles; What matters to you?; Who makes the rules?; Getting heard: tools for change; "Tracking" legislation; providing "testimony".

Thanks so much for hosting this!! I think that this sort of event is perfectly in line with the spirit of public libraries, and I think we need ya'll now more than ever.

We would love more talks like this one about citizen advocacy.

Donna was fabulous. Engaging speaker and shared some really useful knowledge.

I loved this presentation! Donna had a lot of information and provided a lot of resources.

The Influence of the Constitution on Civic and Political Conversation

By looking at the creation of the Constitution and tracing major changes to its interpretation we puncture some myths and develop a perspective that helps us evaluate current politics more thoughtfully.

"Amazing what was done [the creation of the Constitution] and what issues still remain."

"Good level of history and contemporary political ideas, their evolution and relevance to today."

Beyond Voting: Elections and Campaign Financing

This is a unique workshop covering topics related to our electoral systems and presenting specific ideas for bi-partisan civic/political engagement. Topics:

Voting as Constitutional right(?), Voter Rights and Fraud, Voter Registration, Turnout, Ranked-Choice Voting, Redistricting, Electoral College, National Popular Vote, Campaign Financing, SuperPACS and

501(c)4s, Contribution Limits, Dark Money, Disclosure, Attitudes about Money in Politics, Campaign Finance Databases, Public Financing of Elections
